INTRODUCTION.

THIS important Collection, the result of many years ardent pursuit, includes some of the rarest and finest known examples of English Coins, and by a reference to the pedigrees it will be seen that no apology is required for this brief introduction.

The Coins acquired from Collections so choice as the Shepherd, Montagu duplicates (1888), Bieber, A. D. Clarke, Rostron, Marsham, Richardson, Webb, and others, may be taken as evidence of Mr. Clark's determination to possess a series second to none of them so far as it extends.

The mention of the late Mr. Montagu's Collection may be considered by some as out of place here, but a large number of the examples now offered for sale are quite equal—and in some instances—superior to the Montagu specimens.

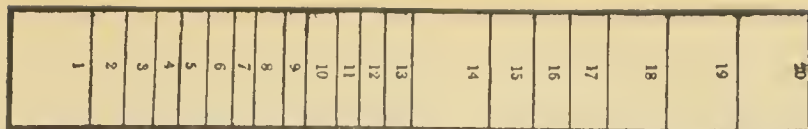

It is needless to say, no higher test of merit can be applied than comparison with similar pieces which formed part of the magnificent and unrivalled Collection so recently dispersed.

The following lots—in addition to those illustrated—are for their condition and rarity particularly worthy of notice.

Edward the Black Prince (Anglo-Gallic), Hardit (78); Pavillion (79); Richard II, Noble (80); Groat (83); Edward IV, York Half Noble (100); Richard III, Angel (109); Edward VI, Sovereign of 4th coinage (139); Half Sovereign (140); Philip and Mary, Penny (155); Elizabeth, Fine Sovereign (157); Milled Half Sovereign (168); Crown (169); Portcullis Set (174-177); James I, Fifteen Shilling Piece (185); 1st issue Half Sovereign (188); Crown (190); Shilling (202); Charles I (Tower Mint), Half Crown (219); Shillings (222-225); Sixpences (229-233); Oxford Mint, Three Pound Piece, 1642 (275); Sovereigns (278), (279); Pound Piece (Silver) (281); Shrewsbury Half Pound (290);
